The cats gathered around a pool. They all looked into it eagerly. A dark shape appeared on the surface. A blue she-cat looked up. Her eyes were bright.

"There is a prophecy!" She said. "Out of the darkness, stars will come and get rid of the evil tiger and holly."

"It's about StarKit!" A white tom said. "She's going to save the forest," He looked at a gold tom by BlueStar. "she has powers nobody dreamed of." Said the gold tom. "Should we tell JayFeather?" He asked. "Yes." Said BlueStar. "he needs to know."

She walked away from the pool to tell JayFeather about the prophecy.
